

Hi Everyone!

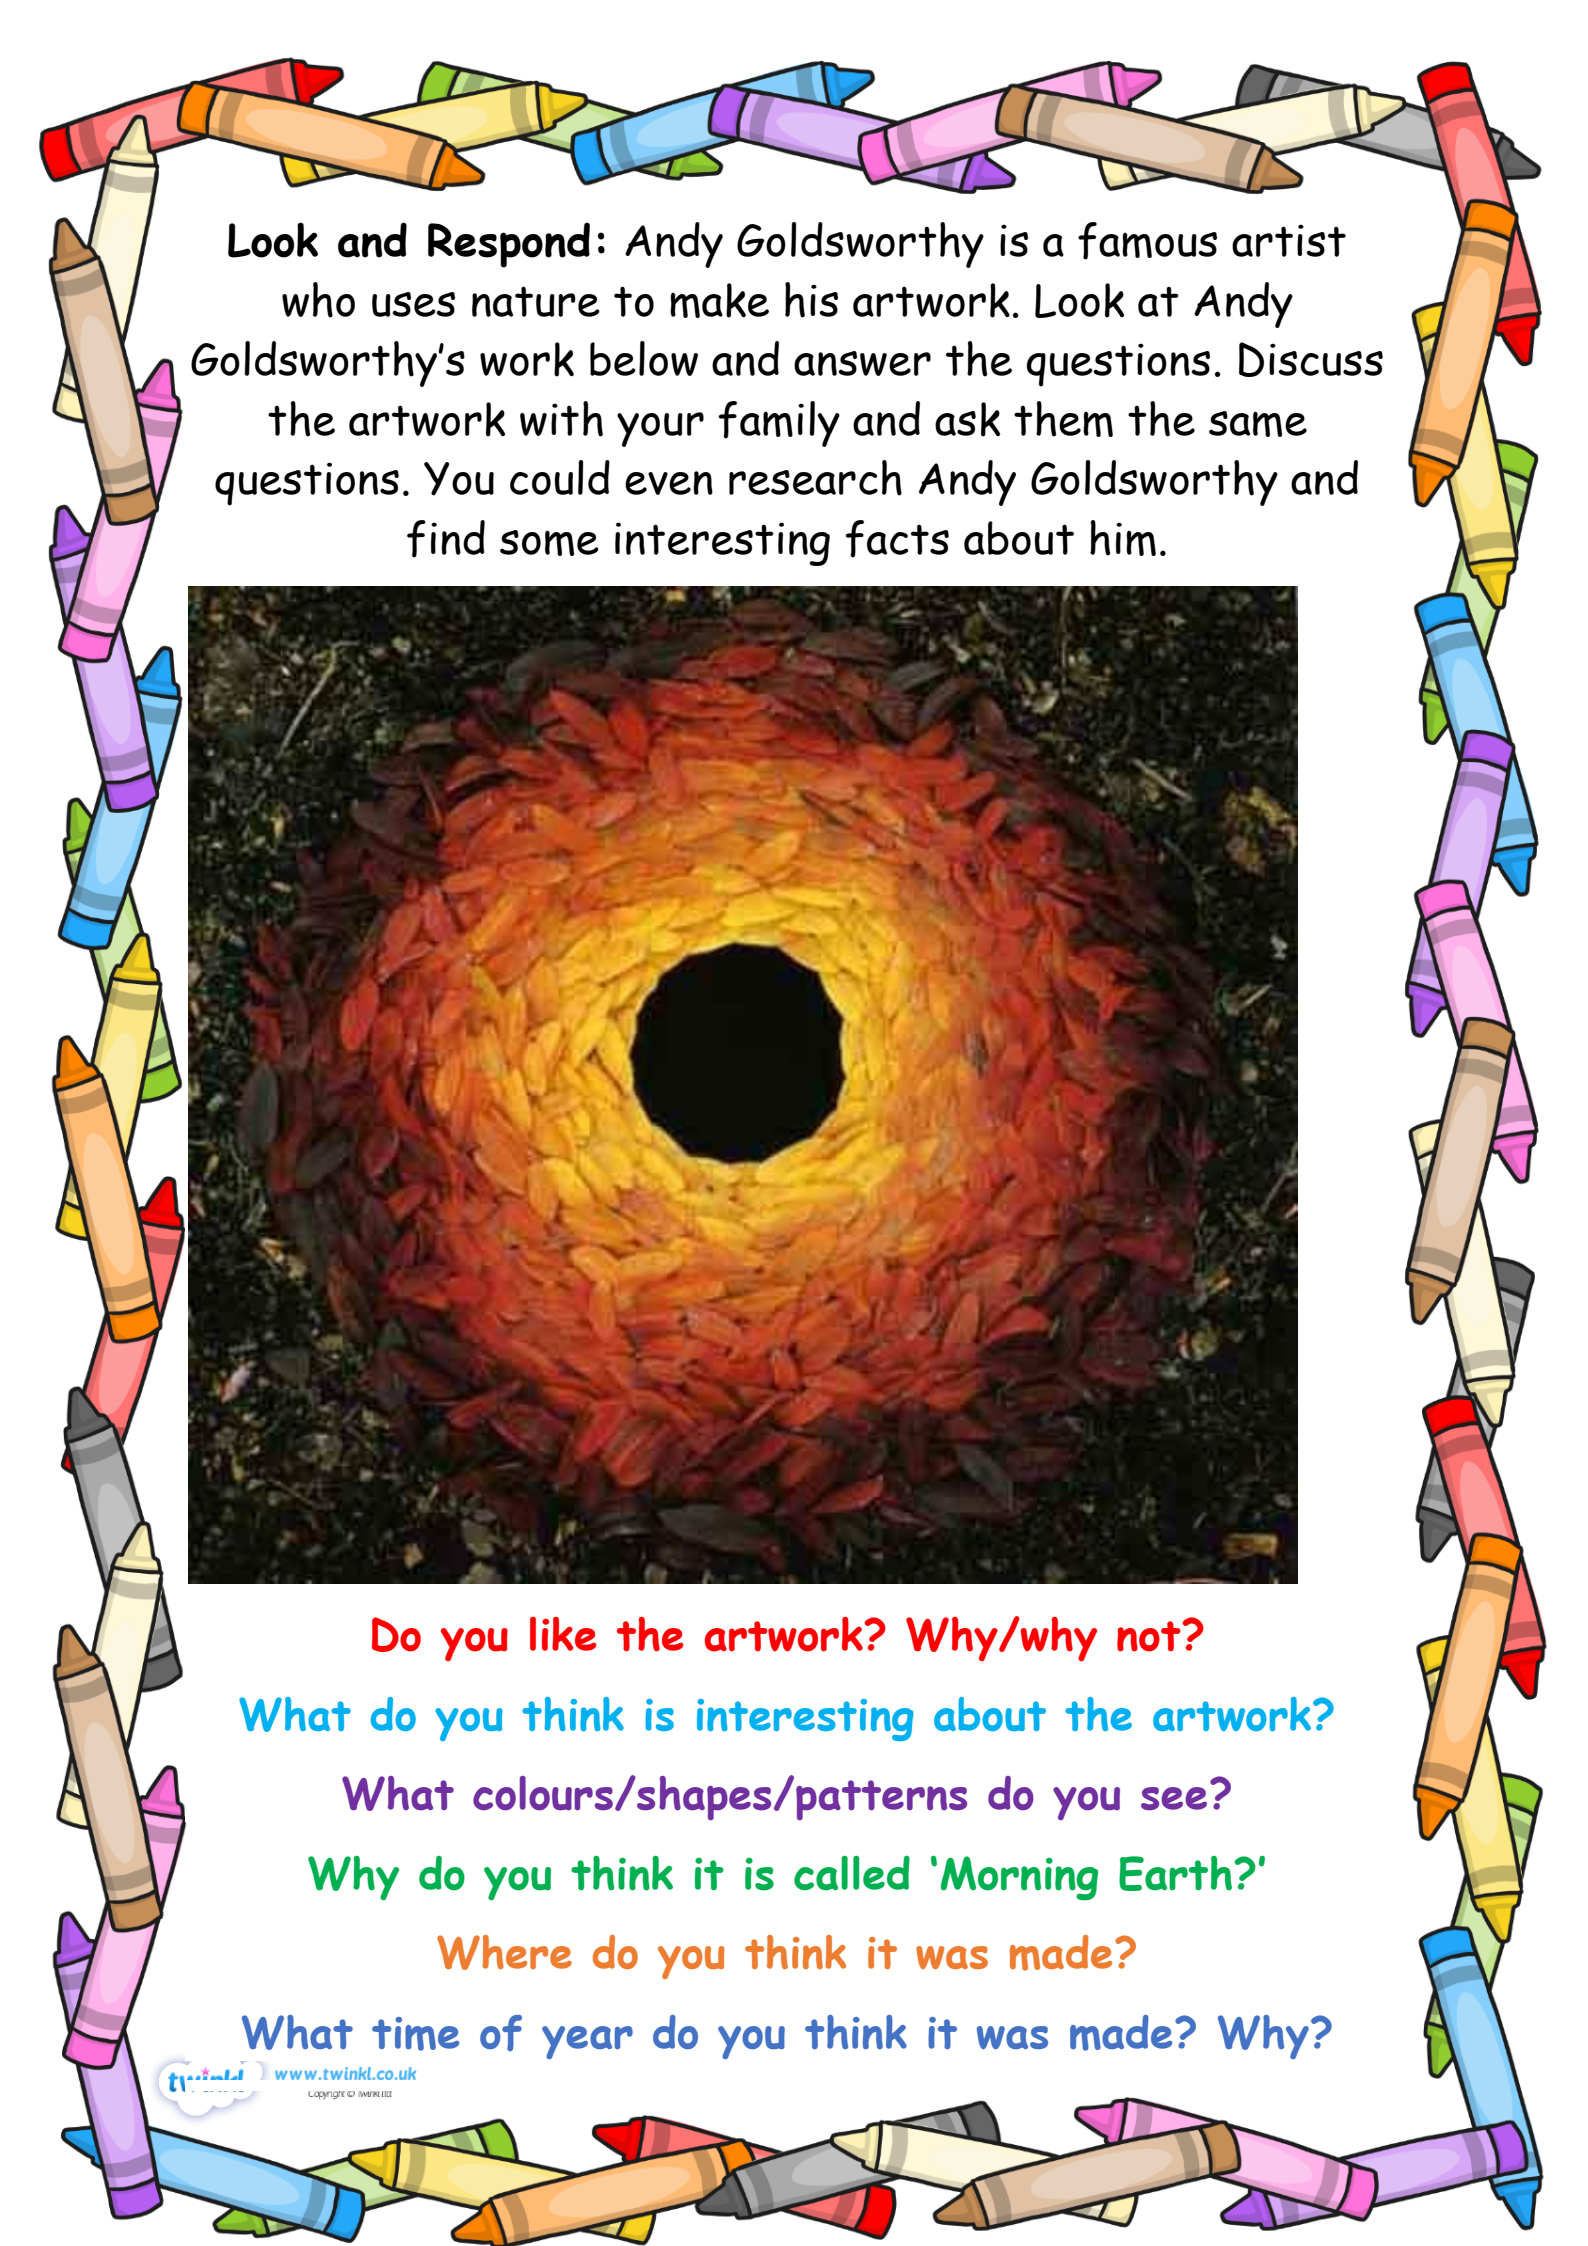

How are you all? I hope you had another great week and are enjoying the lovely weather. I have been going on a long walk every evening to stay active. Check out the photo I took of sunset one night. Look at the beautiful colours in the sky! I have some fun activities for you to try this week. Keep up the great work you are doing. Well done to everyone!

Weather Log: Watch the weather forecast every day and keep a weather diary. Then, pretend to be a weather reporter and present the weather forecast to your family.

Look and Respond: Andy Goldsworthy is a famous artist who uses nature to make his artwork. Look at Andy Goldsworthy's work below and answer the questions. Discuss the artwork with your family and ask them the same questions. You could even research Andy Goldsworthy and find some interesting facts about him.

Do you like the artwork? Why/why not?

What do you think is interesting about the artwork?

What colours/shapes/patterns do you see?

Why do you think it is called 'Morning Earth?'

Where do you think it was made?

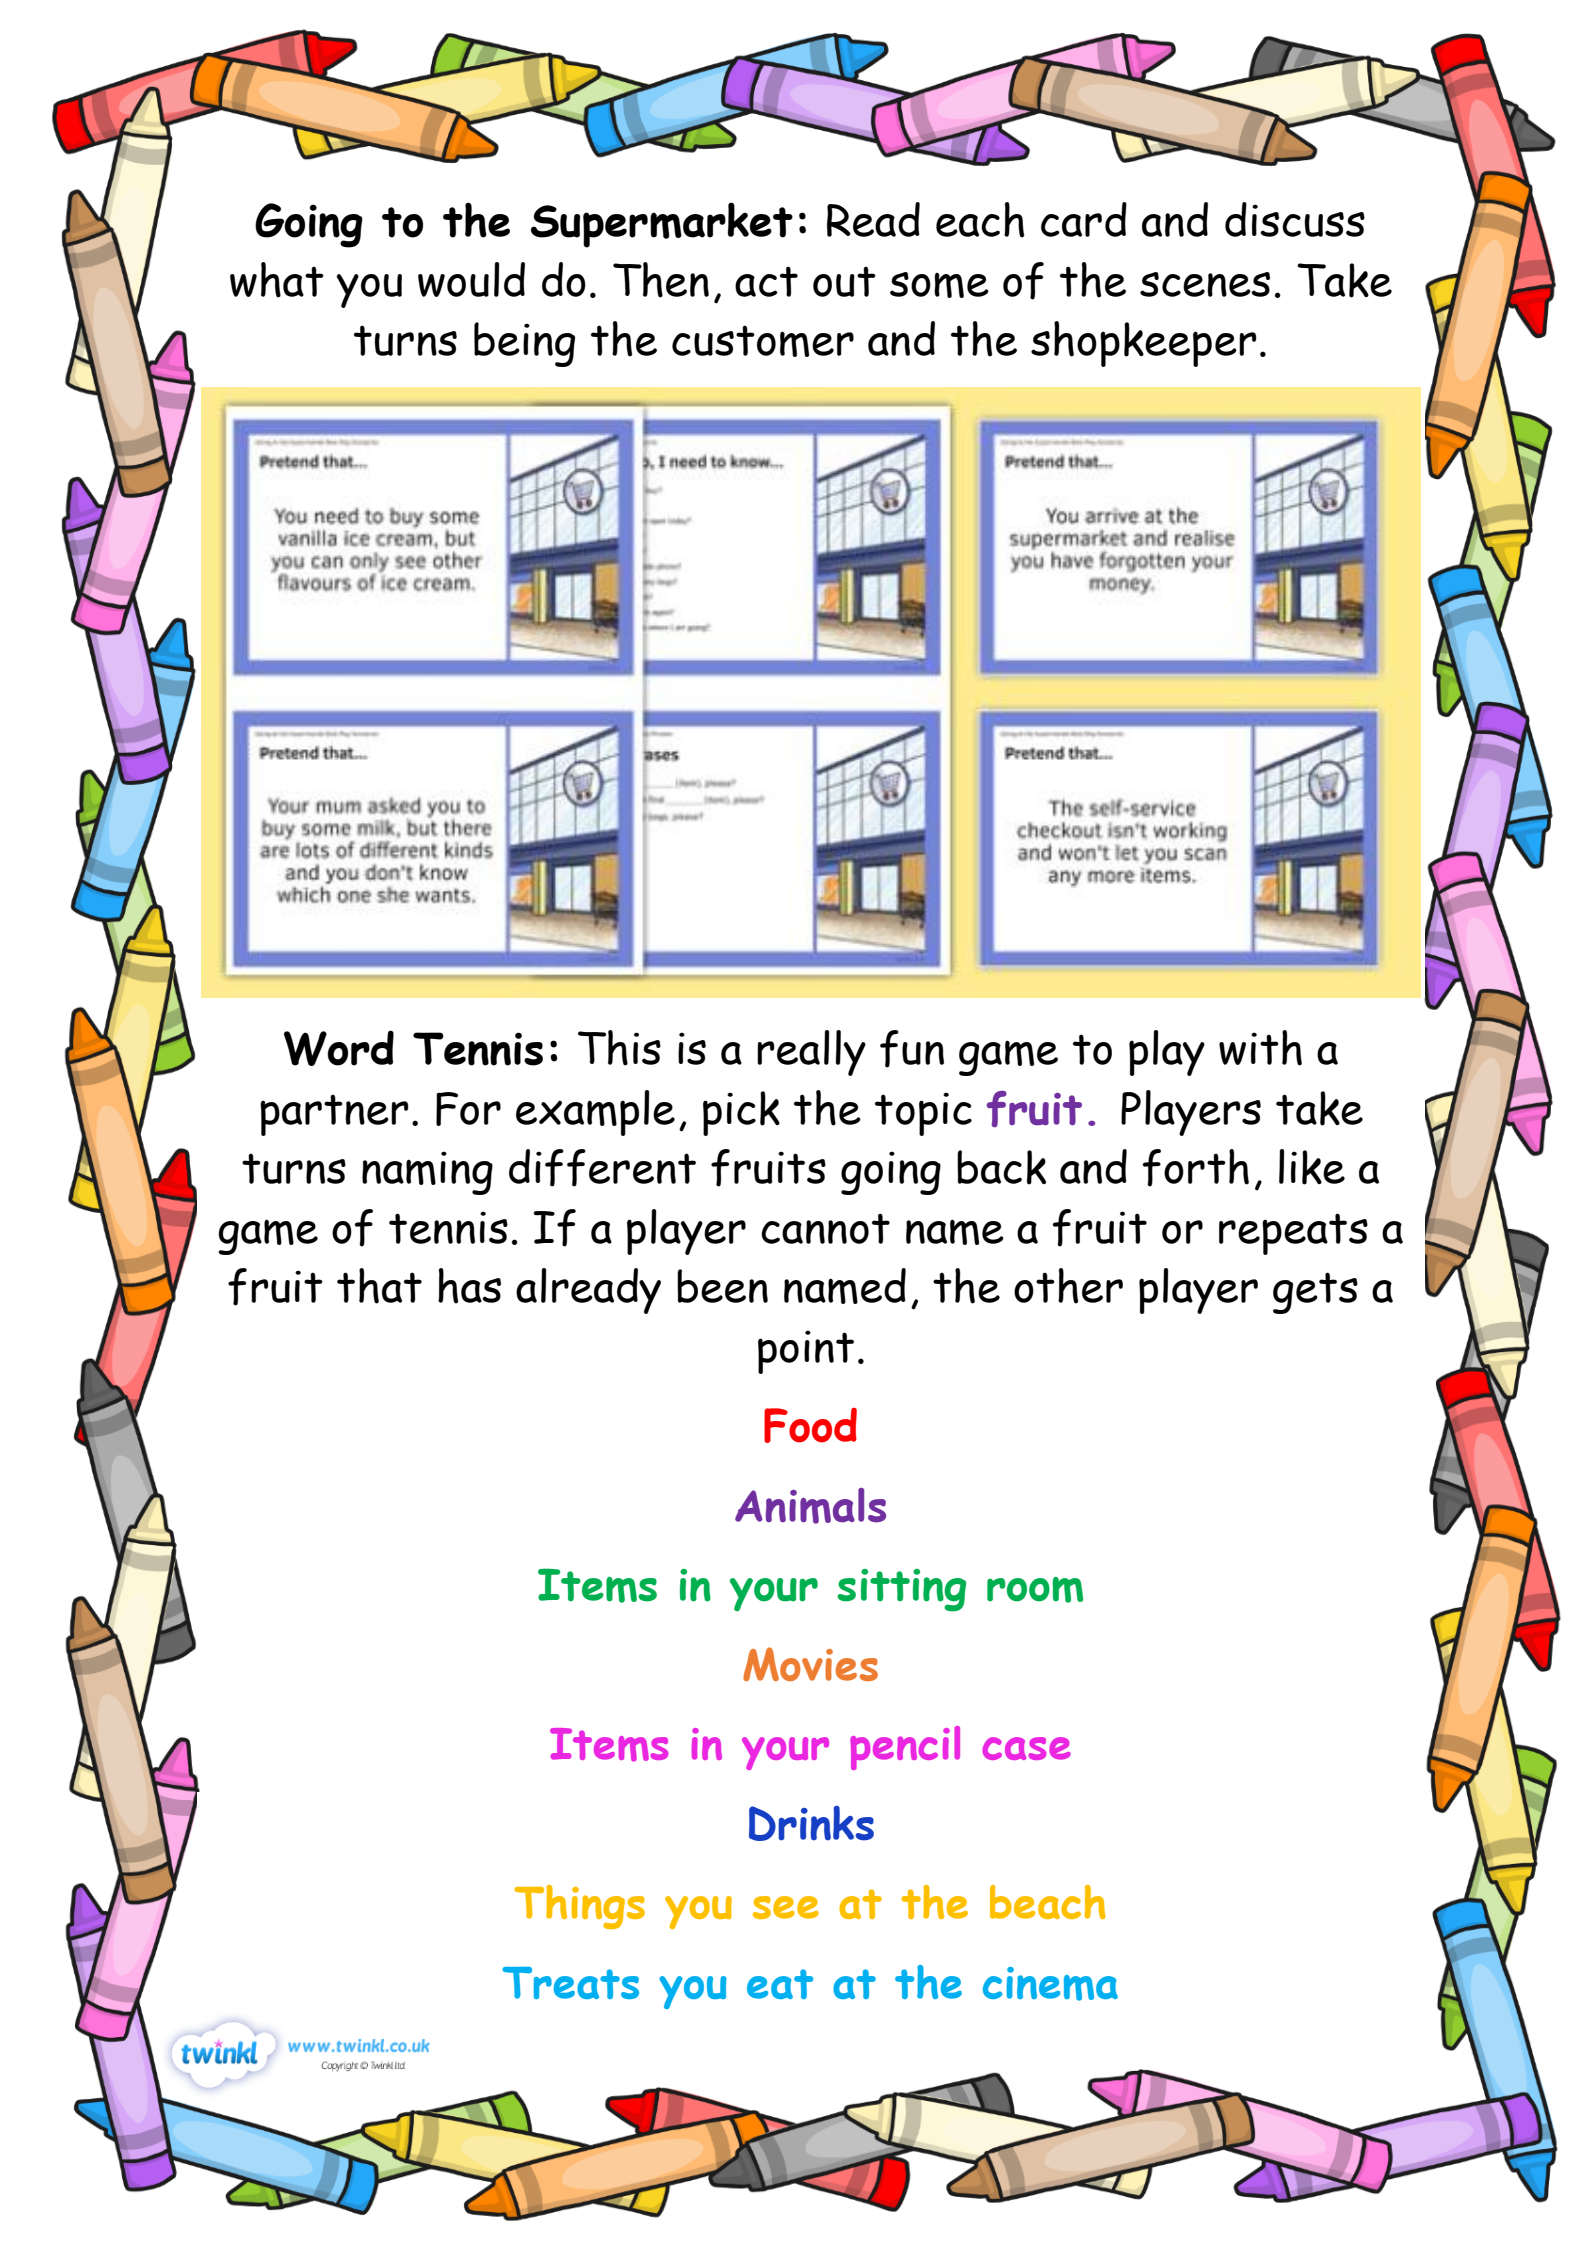

What time of year do you think it was made? Why?

Abstract Art: Find a pencil and piece of paper. Using your pencil draw one continuous line, don't lift your pencil from the paper. Then get colouring! Talk about your artwork. What shapes do you see? What colours have you used? How does your artwork make you feel? Name your artwork.

My Favourite Hobbies: Hobbies are things we enjoy doing. My favourite hobbies are baking and running. What are your favourite hobbies? Write a list and draw pictures for each. Find out your families favourite hobbies. Then play the board game with them. When you land on a hobby say whether you like it or not and give a reason.

Going to the Supermarket: Read each card and discuss what you would do. Then, act out some of the scenes. Take turns being the customer and the shopkeeper.

Card 1: Pretend that... You need to buy some vanilla ice cream, but you can only see other flavours of ice cream.

Card 2: I need to know... (Illustration of a person at a counter)

Card 3: Pretend that... You arrive at the supermarket and realise you have forgotten your money.

Card 4: Pretend that... Your mum asked you to buy some milk, but there are lots of different kinds and you don't know which one she wants.

Card 5: (Illustration of a person at a counter)

Card 6: Pretend that... The self-service checkout isn't working and won't let you scan any more items.

Word Tennis: This is a really fun game to play with a partner. For example, pick the topic fruit. Players take turns naming different fruits going back and forth, like a game of tennis. If a player cannot name a fruit or repeats a fruit that has already been named, the other player gets a point.
